Davis SOUTH DAKOTA STATE GAZETTEER. Deadwood 2083

SCHULTZ & DAVIS (George W. Schultz, Jackson A. Davis), Real Estate, Insurance and Live Stock. Slagle F M & Co, George A Butterfield agt, lumber. Smith & De Boor (Frank F Smith, Reiner De Boor), hardware and farm impts. Stout George, blksmith. Waterman Lula, milliner.

DAY, Gregory county. A p o and boat landing, on the Missouri river, established in 1905, 35 miles n w of Fairfax, the county seat, and 18 w of Platte, the bank location and railroad point, on the C M & St P Ry. Telephone service. Stage to Platte tri-weekly with mail. Harry B Soper, P M. SOPER H B, General Store.

DEADWOOD. Pop, 5,864. Lawrence county. The judicial seat of the county; is located in the canyon of White-wood creek, almost entirely shut in by the hills, on the C & N W and C B & Q Rys. It is incorporated as a city, and governed by a mayor and city council. Since its first settlement, in 1876, Deadwood has maintained its position as a business, distributing and financial center of this marvelously rich mining district. The products of the surrounding mines since their discovery 29 years ago aggregate over $135,000,000. Although the mines in this district have been worked at a profit in the past, the development of the silver and copper mines in the vicinity has hardly begun; and the possibilities of the future in the development of the latent riches will yet astonish the world—more by the rapid strides in commerce and wealth in the years to come than the wonderful and marvelous changes that have been wrought in the past. Stock raising, agriculture, grain and all kinds of farm produce and vegetables have developed wonderfully in the valleys surrounding this city. The Centennial Valley covering about six miles square, Spearfish Valley 25 miles square, and Red Water Valley 15 miles square are excellent markets for the commodities produced in this locality. The city is lighted by electricity and gas, has telephone connection with every town in the Black Hills, and the mining camps in Lawrence county; has a splendid system of water works, a well equipped volunteer fire department, several good hotels, a public library, high and ward schools, Methodist, Episcopal, Congregational, Lutheran, Baptist and Catholic churches, a city hall, lumber and planing mills, smelting works, 4 cyanide works, 2 machine shops, hospital, creamery, boiler works and 2 banks. Two newspapers, the Pioneer-Times (daily and weekly) and the Mining Review (weekly) are published. A new Federal building to cost $250,000, a new court house to cost $75,000 and an opera house to cost $25,000 are in course of construction. The Homestake Co is building a new slime plant at a cost of $500,000. A large number of mines that have been idle for years are arranging for active operation and immense sums of money are being put into circulation by the improvements and developments

Jig Mining & Manufacturing Co.

EDWARD Z. KIDD, Manager.

H. H. SCHNEIDER, President

S. C. POLLEY, Secretary

P. O. Box 599.

Deadwood, S. D.

Our jigs are built in three sizes and may be so constructed as to work in connection with dredgers, hydraulic operations, or by themselves: No. 1 has a capacity of fifty tons of gravel in ten hours, and can be so arranged that it can be run by any kind of power. No. 2 has a capacity of from ten to fifteen tons in ten hours. It can be so geared that it can be run by hand, or it may be furnished with a pulley and run by any kind of power available, and where necessary may have an elevator attachment at a small extra cost. Number 3 is designed especially for prospecting purposes. It has a capacity of one to two tons in ten hours. It weighs only about one hundred pounds and can be operated by hand. Write us for further information.

THE GERMAN BANK,

Transacts a General Banking Business.

To investors we offer first Real Estate Farm Loans.

Any Loan made by us is as safe as a government
bond and better because it nets you more interest.

Invest your money in a country where crops don't fail and where trainloads of stock are shipped and where from $30,000 to $40,000 are paid
to farmers' monthly for cream, butter and eggs.

Write us for particulars.

The last chance to buy good land cheap.

Would it not be well while you are young and earning money to put some of it in good land at from $10.00 to $20.00 per acre, this when you get old will be worth $50.00 to $100.00 per acre. A farm like that would keep you. Population is increasing, land area is not.

McPherson and Campbell Counties So. Dak.

Emmons and McIntosh Counties No. Dak.

Have the largest area of good cheap lands in the United States. Three great railroads are spending millions to get this territory. Mr. Money Man! don't forget these facts. Mr. Homeless Man! get you a home now. Mr. Renter! buy you a home with what you pay for rent.

HOT SPRINGS. Pop. 1,760. Fall River county. The judicial seat of the county, an incorporated city, governed by a mayor and board of aldermen. It is picturesquely located on Fall River, a swift mountain stream, and on the N & W div of the C & N W and C & Q Rys, 59 miles s w of Rapid City and 525 n w of Omaha, Neb. It has Methodist, Baptist, Catholic, Episcopal, Presbyterian and Congregational churches, several hotels, the leading one being the Evans, supplied with water from the famous hot springs, and open the year round; 3 banks, a Methodist college, a state soldiers' home, a steam mill, an opera house, hospitals and numerous beautiful stone office and bank buildings, built from the quarries near the city, which yield a variety of soft stone with variegated colors, and which hardens with age, making them among the most valuable quarries in the West. A national soldiers' sanitarium is now in course of construction. The city is lighted by electricity, and has an excellent water works system. The sanitary facilities are the very best, which, together with the altitude of 3,400 feet above the sea level and the healing properties of its hot and medicated springs make it the resort of tourists and pleasure seekers. The city was incorporated in 1883, and is governed by a mayor and board of aldermen. United States Land Office, the United States Surveyor General's Office
and a United States Weather Bureau have offices here. The city also contains Ep-ist, Catholic, Congregational, Episcopal, Lutheran, Methodist, Christian Science and Presbyterian churches, handsome and commodious brick school buildings, a court house, a well appointed opera house,
a flouring mill, grain elevators, 4 hotels,

S. TOBIASEN,

DEALER IN LAND
AND REAL ESTATE

I HAVE lived in Brule County for a good many years and have found the best tracts of land to be south of the railroad track. The land there is much leveler. It is good for farming and good for stock raising. People coming from the far East are not so able to tell the difference in land as we are. I have a fine list of land south of the railroad track, besides many thousand acres in Charles Mix, Buffalo and Hand counties, with improvements and good artesian wells at from $15 to $35 per acre according to location. I have also unimproved land from $9 up to $20 per acre. It would pay you to stop and see me in regard to Brule county land. I sell land for 5 per cent commission and lower than other real estate men. Write me in regard to prices of land.

LEAD.- Pop, 8,835. Lawrence county. Formerly called Lead City, is the largest and most important city in the Black Hills, and is one of the richest mining camps in America. It is located on the C E & Q and C & N W
Rys, near Bald Mountain and Ruby Basin, at an altitude of 5,300 feet, 3 1/2 miles south of Deadwood, the judicial seat, with which place it has street car connection. It is an incorporated city and is governed by a mayor and a board of aldermen. The headquarters of the Homestake Mining Co are here, which is the largest low grade gold mine in the world. The Homestake has 1062 stamps which never cease dropping, and from this mine alone,
over 88,000,000 in gold were produced is capitalized at $21,810,000, and has during the year 1905. The Homestake produced over $112,000,000 in ore, and has many millions more in sight. It is claimed that its annual production will not be less than $10,000,000 per year for the next fifty years. The Columbus mine is the next in size in the hills.
This property adjoins the Homestake.
There are many other profitable mines in the immediate neighborhood. The city has 2 banks, 6 churches, 6 hotels,
a hospital, a free public library, a well equipped fire department, gas, electric lights, water works, a brick yard and a planing mill. Two ably edited and well conducted daily newspapers, the Call and the Tribune, are published.

LAND

Is the basis of all wealth.
If you are in search of a

GOOD HOME
GOOD CLIMATE

Where you can raise Wheat, Oats, Barley, Corn, Flax, Potatoes, in fact, everything adapted to this latitude, and where you can successfully carry on DAIRYING AND STOCK RAISING, and where your family will have the advantages of good society, good schools, good church facilities, then come and see me, and I will show you just what you want. If you are renting land now, paying $3.00 to $5.00 per acre annual cash rental, I will show you just as good land and sell it to you at what you will pay out in rental, where you are, in three years, and will give you easy terms of payment.

WHERE TO INVEST!
The Corn Belt of South Dakota

Conservative men want to invest where their money is safe and pays good interest, and in such localities as give the best assurance of an increase in value. If this be true we would ask you to investigate the lands tributary to Madison, S.D. Here you can buy a deep black loam soil with clay subsoil, on nicely located improved farms, at $27.50 to $45 per acre, according to location and improvements.

YOU WANT A HOME

Do you want a home of your own, in a healthy climate, with a fine farm, in a corn belt? Or do you want to make an investment that is as good as a government bond, because it will net you more money the longer you hold it? Either or both can be obtained by the home-seeker or investor through the agency of L. T. Love, for I am now offering for sale on easy terms several thousand acres of some of the finest and most productive lands to be found in South Dakota.

MITCHELL. Pop. 6,630. Davison county. The metropolis of the fertile James River Valley, is a prosperous city, settled in the fall of 1879, and incorporated in 1881. It is known as the "Corn Palace City" and is governed by a mayor and board of alderman, and is also the county seat, located at the junction of the H & D and the I & D divs of the G M & St P Ry at the point where that road crosses the James River on its way to the Black Hills, and is the terminus of the C St P M & O Ry. It is a busy commercial and educational center and is located in a rich agricultural district, having 4 banks, 10 churches, excellent public and parochial schools, a U S land office, a flour mill, a creamery, an opera house, several grain elevators, bottling works, machine shops, a court house, the shops and round house of the C M & St P Ry, gas and electric light plant, waterworks and good fire protection. The most notable institution of Mitchell is its Corn Palace occupying a half square in the heart of the city, remarkable for the beauty of its decoration in corn and other grain. Another notable institution is The Dakota Wesleyan University; a new four story granite fire proof building costing $25,000, opened last year as a hall for women. Other notable buildings are the City Hall costing $45,000, The Carnegie Library, High School, St Josephs Hospital and the New live stock Pavilion. One daily paper, The Republican is published, also the following weeklies, the Capital, The Gazette and the Clarion and 5 monthlies, The Guardian, The Phreno-Cosmian, The Progressive Poultry Journal, The South Dakota Anti-Saloon Issue and The South Dakota Educator. Large quantities of grain and live stock are shipped. The city supports 8 good hotels, the Widmann, in a building costing $100,000, being specially worthy of mention as one of the best managed hostleries in the United States. Exp. Am and U S. Tel. W U. trains daily each way, is now erecting an extensive combination steel, wagon and railway bridge across the Missouri river here and is soon to be extended to, and through the Black Hills to the Pacific Coast. Several railway surveys have been made to here recently and new lines projected. This young city may soon become one of the leading commercial points of the northwest. It has natural gas and strong indications of Petroleum oil have been discovered lately also large quantities of excellent cement products. The state has begun the erection of a new capitol building and the Federal government is completing the finest post office, land office and a U S court building ever erected in so small a city. A new opera house to seat over 1,600 and a business block to contain 6 store rooms and about 60 offices are in course of construction and other improvements are under way. It has 3 fine brick school buildings, a new Carnegie library, a fine court house, a large flour mill operated with natural gas, 3 national banks, 7 hotels, 2 of the largest printing houses in the state, a U S Industrial Indian school and Baptist, Catholic, Congregational, Episcopal, Lutheran and Methodist church denominations all having fine buildings. Two daily newspapers, the Capital Journal, The Dakotan and 3 weeklies, The Capital Journal, The Dakotan and The Free Press, are published. It is a great live stock and wool market.

RAPID CITY. Pop. 2,200. Pennington county. An incorporated city, settled in 1876. Is located on the Rapid River and the N & W div of the C & N W Ry, in the central portion of the county, of which it is the judicial seat. It is 130 miles w of Pierre and 52 s e of Deadwood. Governed by a mayor and board of aldermen. This city will shortly become the railroad center for the Black Hills, three new railroads now building to Rapid City for their terminus, thus opening up a vast country with Rapid City for the commercial center and distributing point for the Black Hills district, the new Railroads are White River Valley Ry, Pierre, Rapid City & Northwestern, and Missouri River & Northwestern Ry. It is in the most fertile valley of s w South Dakota, at the entrance to the Black Hills, from which it derives its name, the "Gate City," and in the commercial center of a mining,
stock raising and agricultural district.
The city has a flour mill, a grain elevator,
a public hall, pressed brick and lime factories, machine shop and foundry, a bottling works, 7 churches, a public library, 2 banks, 3 hotels, a 500-ton smelter for the treatment of gold ores, electric light and gas plants, an excellent system of water works and a good fire department.
One daily, the Journal, 2 weekly, the Journal and the Union and 2 monthly, newspapers, are published. A United States land office, weather bureau and an Indian School; also a state school of mines are located here. Telephone service.

ALL SAINTS SCHOOL

SIOUX FALLS, SOUTH DAKOTA.

A BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES AND CHILDREN.

RT. REV. W. H. HARE, D. D.
President.

MISS HELEN S. PEABODY
Principal.

GREAT ADVANTAGES AT LOW RATES.

Primary, Intermediate and Academic grades. Thorough instruction in singing, pianoforte and violin. On graduation the student is prepared to take up the duties of life, or ready for any of the colleges at the east.

The location of the school is exceptionally fine. The building is one of the most beautiful in the northwest. - The lawn is extensive, and being constantly watered and trimmed, it is fresh and green in the dryest weather. The grounds are dotted with trees, which give beauty to the general aspect, and grateful shade.

The building is heated by steam and hot air, lighted by gas, and supplied with wholesome water, vouched for by the board of health. Bath rooms are conveniently placed throughout the building, and especial attention has been paid to securing PERFECT VENTILATION, GOOD DRAINAGE and SAFETY FROM FIRE. Five great railroads center in Sioux Falls. For catalogue and information address.

FRANCIS INGALLS, REAL ESTATE. LARGE TRACTS MY SPECIALTY.

Any Lumber Company, Syndicate or Corporation desiring large tracts of Saw-timber in the Coast Country, Canada or the South, with or without sawmills, or any one desiring a large ranch, a large tract of grazing land or a large tract for colonization, West, North or South, will find it to their advantage to confer with me with reference to the purchase of such property, as I am "on the ground floor" with some of the best propositions to be found anywhere. In view of the present rapid development of the Timber, Mineral and agricultural resources of the Coast Country and the constantly increasing demands for its products, the opportunities for purchasing which are now being offered are especially inviting. The old saying, "A thing well bought is half sold," is as true now as it ever was, and the way to buy land RIGHT is to buy it in large tracts. Write me for anything in my line.

CHIROPRACTIC

(Ki-ro-prac-tic.)

A Science that removes the cause of any and all Nervous Diseases of the Human Body without medicine or the knife. The Nerves are the Life. An entire transition. Instead of treating effects I remove the cause of the disease by the adjustment of the back bone at the location where I find pressure on the nerves.

STURGIS. Pop. 1,400. Meade county. An incorporated city and the county seat, is located on the N & W div of the C & N W Ry, 12 miles e of Deadwood and 30 n w of Rapid City. It is governed by a mayor and a board of aldermen. The natural advantages of this city are great. Located in the center of and being the receiving and distributing point for a fine agricultural and grazing district, and having in its vicinity good paying mining properties and vast quantities of fine timber, it is well equipped in its struggle for supremacy with the other cities of the Black Hills. The climate and agricultural district of the neighborhood are especially adapted to farming and live stock raising. Adjoining the city limits is located Fort Meade, where there are stationed 4 troops of cavalry. The city has 2 banks, Catholic, Episcopal, Presbyterian and Methodist churches, graded public and parochial schools, an academy, flour and planing mills, brick and lime manufactories, an opera house, 3 hotels, a well equipped fire department, wide and well graded streets, an electric light plant, and good water works. Two weekly newspapers, the Press and the Record, are published. Exports grain, flour, lumber, wood, silver ore and live stock. Stage to Volanteer. Hereford and Viewfield semi-weekly. YANKTON. Pop. 4,800. Yankton county. The judicial seat of the county. Is located on the n bank of the Missouri river. It was incorporated in 1869, and is governed by a mayor and board of aldermen. It is also the rendezvous of the steamers plying on the upper Missouri river, and is a station on the C M & St P, the G N and C & N W Rys. The Western Portland Cement Co's works are adjacent to the city. They manufacture cement superior to any in the country, equaling the best English Portland cement, and give employment to a large number of men, their product being in demand throughout the West. The South Dakota Hospital for the Insane, one of the largest and finest in the United States, is located here, also a hospital under the charge of the Benedictine Sisters. The city contains 5 churches, good public schools, 5 hotels—the Pierce, the leading hotel, is one of the best planned and best equipped hotels in the state. The Merchants also offers fine service for the traveling men. A theater costing $25,000, a splendid Masonic Temple, costing about $60,000, 2 Carnegie library buildings, costing $12,000, and $15,000, 3 banks, 2 flour mills, a feed mill a planing mill, a brewery, a college, 6 grain elevators, public halls and a court house, costing $100,000. The old court house having been bought by the Odd Fellows, for a fraternal building. The city maintains good water works and an electric light plant. Two daily newspapers, the Herald and the Gazette, 3 semi-weeklies, the Gazette, the Herald and the Yankton County Record, and 1 weekly, the Dakota Freie Presse, are published. The latter is a German paper, established in 1873. It covers the entire German population in South and North Dakota and a part of Nebraska, and has the finest newspaper office in the state. The country adjacent is well adapted for agriculture and stock-raising and the shipments, consisting of grain, live stock and produce, are very large. It is the postal focus of a large part of Southeastern Dakota, 6 rural routes emanating from here. Telephone service. Exp. Am. G N and U S. Tel. W U. Mail, daily. Edward G Edgerton, P M.

MONTANA.

Organized as a territory May 26th, 1864; admitted as a state November 8th 1889. Area 145,310 square miles. Present estimate population 300,000.

The extensive area within the confines of Montana was a portion of Louisiana, as claimed and occupied by France, and became an integral part of the United States when President Jefferson concluded his big real estate deal with the first Napoleon, acquiring ownership of that immense tract of territory, mostly unexplored, and which is now the garden and treasure vault of the world. The portion of the purchase known as Montana became afterwards as new states and territories were carved out, a part of Missouri, Oregon, Nebraska, Dakota and Idaho, and was created into a separate territory, with its present boundaries, May 26th, 1864, two years after the gold discoveries, and when a considerable floating population had been attracted within her borders by the fame of the golden sands of Alder and contiguous gulches.

There is fairly good evidence that the first white men to enter the territory now comprising Montana were Jesuit missionaries from the St. Lawrence river, who first made their journeys across the trackless wilderness intervening in the early part of the eighteenth century. In 1742 the Chevalier De la Varendrye, governor of Quebec, on a journey of exploration, erected the standard of France in Montana, even on the peaks of the "shining mountains" (Rocky) that met his wondering gaze from the far-off plains of Assiniboine. The adventurous Frenchman left no complete record of his expedition, and there is a goodly share of romance and doubt connected with it.

The famous expedition of Lewis and Clarke in 1804-1805, under the auspices of President Jefferson, was the first systematic exploration of this mountain region, and the report, or journal, published by them is most interesting and accurate in detail, and gave to the world for the first time reliable information of this then terra incognita. The principal rivers, falls, mountain peaks, etc., were named by these explorers, and from them the government learned much of the vast extent and value of the late Louisiana acquisition. Following Lewis and Clarke came the Astor expedition, traversing Montana on its way to Astoria, on the Pacific coast, to found a headquarters for their fur trade of the Northwest.

Furs and peltries were the only products of what is now Montana, that commanded attention at that period, and about 1830 the American Fur Company of St. Louis entered the field. They built their first "fort" at the mouth of the Marias river, and after various changes, established permanent headquarters at Fort Benton, on the Missouri river, in 1845, continuing operations until the decadence of the fur business.

The Catholic missionaries were also early occupants of this field. Father De Smet built St. Mary's Mission, in the Bitter Root Valley, in 1842, and the succeeding year grew a small crop of wheat and other products, being doubtless the first white man to plow ground in Montana.

The next important epoch in the slow advancement of this region was the arrival of the first steamboat from St. Louis at Fort Benton, June 22, 1860, which was the beginning of an important traffic on the upper Missouri river. In after years, as high as fifty cargoes in a season were discharged by steamers at Fort Benton, which became the entrepot of Montana and the Northwest Territory of Canada, holding this prestige until the railroads entered the territory in the early eighties.

The discoveries of gold in Montana in 1862 would have attracted as much attention as the Klondike to-day, except for the fact that the nation was engaged in civil war, and all those possessing the courage and daring necessary to endure the hardships of exploring a new country had joined the army. It was, however, the red letter event which led directly to its occupation and subsequent development. While gold was found some years earlier, it is a matter of record that the first sluice boxes for the washing of this precious metal were set on what is known as Gold creek, on May 8, 1860. "Diggings" were afterwards found at Deer Lodge, Bannack and other points, but the rich deposits of Alder Gulch and Last Chance (present location of Helena), immediately attracted a horde of fortune hunters from many parts of the Union, and the exciting and dramatic events of the fifties in California were re-enacted in the mountain gulches of Montana. Seven or eight years of activity in placer mining followed, and the yields of the shining metal in that period were immense. The large population had to be housed and fed. Naturally, towns, such as they were, sprang up like magic in the principal mining gulches, and a few, impelled by the tempting prices for all products of the soil, tried ranching and cattle raising in a limited way in the ad-adjacent valleys—and thus were the foundation laid for what are to-day the three important industries of the state, viz: mining, agriculture and stock raising.

TOPOGRAPHY.

Montana, as the word indicates, is a country of mountains, but the name should lead no one to believe that the entire area is of this rugged character. Indeed, less than one-fourth of the state is mountainous, the general classification, as closely as it can be estimated, being 20,000,000 acres agricultural lands, 40,000,000 grazing and 23,000,000 mountainous; out of a total area of 93,000,000 acres. But even the mountains, except in the northern part of the state, where the scenery equals that of Switzerland, have not the rugged precipitous character for which the same giant range is noted in states to the south, their elevations being much lower, and the passes more numerous and of gentler acclivity. While a few of the mountains are broken and rugged to the point of grandeur—particularly those in the southwestern portion of the state, in the vicinity of the National Park, and in the main range near the Canadian line—these are the exceptions rather than the rule. As a general thing the mountain slopes are gentle, so that there is often a blending of valley, bench, foot-hill and mount, with a difficulty of determining when the one ends and the other begins. This applies particularly to the passes, over which wagon roads and railroads are easily constructed, thus putting all portions of the state, even though they be separated by mountain ranges, in direct and easy communication, facilitating commerce and the development of the natural resources of the state.

With the exception of three peaks, there are no mountains in Montana more than 11,000 feet high, while in Colorado that is an average height of the summit of the range. There appears to be a sag or depression in the Rocky Mountain chain in Central Montana, rendering it the natural gateway for transcontinental railroads and inter-ocean commerce.

The eastern division (east of the mountains), which covers about three-fifths of the area of the state, comprises, in the main, valleys and rolling table-lands, the Rocky Mountains occupying the western portion, but intersected here and there by valleys of unsurpassed fertility.

RIVERS AND WATER COURSES.

The Missouri with its tributaries on the east, and the Columbia on the west, have their rise in the mountains of the state and form a network or system of streams unequalled in number and extent in any portion of the Rocky Mountain region, affording opportunities and advantages for a general system of irrigation such as no other western state can claim. The Bitter Root, Kootenay, Big Flathead and an innumerable number of smaller water courses are tributary to the Columbia, and send it out of the state already a mighty stream, although yet near its source. The Clark, Big Horn, Powder and Tongue, on the south side of the Yellowstone, with numerous smaller associate streams, contribute to swell that into a large and navigable river almost from the starting point in the mountains, while from the north side it receives the tribute of many diminutive water courses—mere rivulets—which aggregate, however, a considerable flow of water.

Winding from the southwest corner through the isolated mountain ranges which occupy the central western part is the mighty Missouri, already a great river within sight almost of the fountain whence it springs. As it moves first northward and then eastward it absorbs the waters of Madison, Beaver Head, Prickly Pear, Sun, Piegan, Marias, Milk, Poplar, Big Muddy and an infinite number of mountain brooks, leaving the state near its northeast corner, where it unites with the Yellowstone and becomes the rival of the Mississippi for its floods of waters and the length of its course. No one who views the Missouri at Fort Buford can help but feel that a tract of country which supplies the vast quantity of water that stream bears away to the southward is a well watered region, yet it is true that much of the region through which it courses has an insufficient rainfall for agricultural success and must depend largely upon irrigation.

NATIVE VEGETATION.

Notwithstanding what has been said hitherto in various publications concerning the semi-arid tracts of Montana, where the vegetation is limited to a few varieties of the cacti and artemisia families there is comparatively very little of its surface which is not covered with luxuriant growths of grass or forests. Nowhere is there really an approach to barrenness; while the localities where an unusual degree of luxuriance is observable are numerous. The bunch grass of the plains, which feeds and fattens thousands of head of cattle, horses and sheep, and which curing as it stands, is an excellent quality of hay, can be nowhere found in greater abundance or excellence. This is now so widely known that it seems like wasting time to repeat the assertion. The forests are made up mainly of yellow, white and tamarack pine, red or yellow, and white or balsam fir, yew, white spruce, balsam poplar, aspen, cottonwood, box elder, mountain mahogany, and some other varieties of lesser note. The yellow pine is the largest and most useful timber, the trees frequently attaining 100 feet or more in height, and from five to seven feet in diameter. The white pine is of smaller growth and softer and less durable wood. The streams are bordered with cottonwood and box elder, which grow at comparatively low elevations, and the aspen or white poplar is found in localities that have been denuded, by fire or some other agency, of their original growth of wood.

The densest and most continuous bodies of timber are found in the region west of the main mountain range. This is what is usually meant when the timbered district is spoken of, and it is here that the largest and best yellow pines are found. Next is that portion south of the Yellowstone river, where the mountain spurs are frequent and the level areas small and of seldom occurrence. Again in the central part, between the Missouri and the Yellowstone rivers, in the region occupied by the Big and Little Belt, Crazy and Snowy mountains. Elsewhere there is but little timber, and a few wooded localities maintain but small and unimportant growths. The varieties of shrubbery embrace nearly every kind found in the Northern states, with a number that are peculiar to Western coast countries. That the forest growth is, however, inadequate for a country of the extent of Montana is too palpable to be denied, but it is equally clear that the soil will respond generously to attempts to grow forest trees in almost every part of the state.

CLIMATE.

The climate of the state from one end of the year to the other, is salubrious, even and desirable. The average altitude of Montana's mountain range is scarcely greater than that of arable valleys in states to the south, while over one-fourth of the area of the state is less than 3,000 feet above the sea level. These topographical features affect favorably the climate of the state, and, taken in connection with the influence of the Chinook winds that intervene to temper the rigors of winter, render the climate all that could be desired. These famous winds, originating, as some say, in the southern seas, warm as the breath of summer, descend from the upper air currents, and, rushing through our mountain gaps, change, as if by magic, winter into spring.

Plowing in January and seeding in February are by no means unusual occurrences with the Montana farmer, and the breakup of the Missouri river and its tributaries occurs from four to eight weeks earlier than at Bismarck, Yankton and other lower river points.

By reason of the dry, rarified atmosphere of Montana, as compared with the humid air of the Central and Atlantic states the same degree of cold as recorded by the thermometer does not mean the same thing.

THE MINING INDUSTRY.

Mining is the most important industry in the state. Montana produces more gold, silver and copper than any other state in the Union. Gold is found in all the western and southern counties of the state, but the district embraced has been but superficially prospected for deposits of the precious metal and each year witnesses new discoveries and a greatly increased output. This applies as well to all the other metals, as, though the state has and is producing the several valuable minerals so abundantly, the industry is comparatively in its infancy, and but one or two of the mineral districts of the state have as yet been even partially explored. While the several mineral values are carried in almost all of the ores, the principal silver mines are at Neihart, in the Belt range, in the range skirting the Bitter Root Valley and Missoula river, and along Clark's Fork of the Columbia. Butte has been the great copper producing camp of the state, but now other districts are being opened that promise to be wonderfully rich in this as well as the other metals. The most extensive mining of the different metals is now carried on in Silver Bow, Lewis and Clarke, Deer Lodge, Missoula, Cascade, Jefferson, Granite and Flathead counties, but there are many paying mines in operation in Fergus, Meagher, Beaverhead, Madison, Park, Carbon and Teton counties. There are great deposits of iron in Cascade, Fergus, Teton, Lewis and Clarke, Gallatin, Carbon and other counties but these have not yet come into active demand. Cascade, Carbon, Park, Gallatin, Sweet Grass, Teton and Chouteau counties have great coal measures, but the principal output of the state now comes from the first four counties. The state affords the greatest inducements for the investment of capital in new mining ventures.

THE LIVE STOCK INTEREST.

A large per cent of the cattle are owned by corporations, the members of which are nearly all citizens of Montana, who have made their money during the past ten or twelve years by raising stock, beginning with small herds. A great advantage Montana has as a stock country lies in the fact that its grasses are more luxuriant and more nutritious than those of the southern ranges. The most valuable is the bunch grass, which is superior to the celebrated Kentucky blue grass in its fattening qualities. In the fall, owing to the dryness of the climate, it cures just as it stands upon the foothills and the rolling plains, and furnishes feed throughout the winter.

Sheep and cattle do not, as a rule, do well together, and certain portions of the great grazing areas of Montana seem by common consent to be left by the cattlemen to the occupancy of the sheep breeders. Montana wool now ranks next to the highest class of wool raised in the United States. A sheep ranch is always located on a stream where there is meadow land enough to get a considerable quantity of hay.

Montana is one of the best regions in the United States in which to raise fine horses. Montana horses are already making fine records on the racing tracks of the East. There are several extensive horse-breeding farmers in the state who import blooded stallions from the East and from Europe, who are developing a fine breed of native stock.

AGRICULTURE.

Up to a few years ago agriculture in Montana had made comparatively little progress. Very few people had come to this state with the avowed purpose of engaging in farming, but rather had drifted into it. Mining, stock-growing and other pursuits have had more attraction and offered the inducement of larger profit. The situation, however, is now changing. New railroads are opening up and populating new farming sections, and the home demand for the products of the soil is constantly increasing; capital is being invested in irrigating enterprises, and the prospects are bright for the rapid development of agricultural resources. The state offers superior advantages for dairying, yet this business is in its incipient stage. The prospects for its rapid advancement, however, are very bright.

SCHOOLS AND CHURCHES.

Montana maintains an excellent system of public schools, and is aided in doing so by a very large grant of public lands from the general government. In the way of higher education, there are collegiate institutions at Helena and Deer Lodge, an agricultural college at Bozeman, university at Missoula, normal school at Dillon, and school of mines at Butte. All the religious denominations are represented in the church organizations of the state, which are numerous.

MONTANA COLLECTION LAWS.

Arrest.—For fraud in contracting a debt, or concealing or fraudulently disposing of the indebted property, or attempting to do so, for attempting to leave the state with intent to defraud creditors, subjects offender to arrest.

Assignments and Insolvency.—An insolvent debtor may make an assignment for the benefit of creditors and may prefer creditors.

Attachments.—All property not exempt from execution may be attached by filing sufficient bonds in double the amount claimed, if it be less than $1,000; if more than $1,000 and less than $10,000, then in amount claimed; and on an affidavit showing that defendant is indebted to plaintiff upon a contract, express or implied, for the payment of money, gold dust, or other property then due, which is not secured by a mortgage, lien, or pledge upon real or personal property, or if so secured, the security has become insufficient by the act of the defendant or other means. Attachments may also be had before demand is due; if defendant is leaving, or about to leave the state, with his or her property, moneys or other effects which might be subjected to the payment of debts, for the purpose of defrauding his creditors, or if defendant is disposing of, or about to dispose of his property subject to execution, for the purpose of defrauding his creditors, which must appear by affidavit; provided that any judgment obtained under the provisions of this section shall be with a rebatement of interest from time judgment is rendered until the time at which said debt shall have become due; and provided also that the defendant may, by plea put in issue the matter alleged in affidavit herein required. (March 3, 1899.)

Supplemental Proceedings.—At any time after judgment, upon an affidavit being made by plaintiff, or some one in his behalf, that defendant has property not exempt from execution, which he conceals or refuses to apply on the judgment, the court will issue an order of examination and bring the party before it, when an examination as to such property under oath will be had of the defendant, and any witness which either party may desire to have examined, and if the defendant has any such property the court will order it applied to the satisfaction of the judgment, and if defendant refuses to do so, will commit him as for contempt until he does so.

Chattel Mortgages.—Must be filed within the county, and are good for time specified in note and sixty days additional, but in no case for more than one year and sixty days. It must be sworn by all the parties thereto that the same is made in good faith, to secure the amount named therein, and without any design to hinder or delay the creditors of the mortgagor. The time on the mortgage so made may be extended not to exceed one year by the mortgagee making and filing an affidavit within 60 days after maturity of the debt secured thereby, that the obligation has not been discharged, naming the amount yet due, and the time to which it has been extended, also giving the time when the mortgage was executed. Conditional contracts, notes and instruments for transfer of personal property, reserving title until debt is paid, shall be in writing, and the original, or a true copy thereof, certified by county clerk or recorder shall be filed with the county clerk and recorder of the county wherein property is situate. (March 3, 1899.)

Exemptions.—Usual personal schedule; and to farmer, implements $800, stock, seeds, etc., $200; tools, teams and libraries of mechanics, business and professional men; dwelling of a miner, his tools and machinery, $1,000, also team; homestead, 160 acres in country, one-fourth acre in city, value each, $2,500. Such exemption does not effect the lien of any mechanic or laborer or mortgage lawfully obtained. The homestead exemptions shall only apply to married men or the head of a family, and to all bona fide residents of the state.

Interest.—Eight per cent; but contracts for greater rates legal. No usury laws. Interest on judgments recovered in state, 8 per cent per annum, and not to be compounded.

Judgments.—From the time the judgment is docketed in the district court it becomes a lien upon all the real property of the judgment debtor not exempt from execution in the county, owned by him at the time, or which he may afterwards acquire, until the lien expires. A certified transcript of the docket filed with the clerk of the district court of another county gives a similar lien from the date of such filing until its expiration. The lien expires in ten years from the docketing of the judgment.

Justice's jurisdiction $300.

Limitation of Actions.—To recover real property—upon judgment, ten years; upon a contract or obligation in writing, eight years; for trespass, liability created by statute other than penalty, replevin, for relief on the grounds of fraud or mistake to establish will, on judgment of a court not of record, five years; against sheriff or other officer, upon an account not founded upon written instrument, for the death caused by wrongful act or neglect of another, three years; for libel, slander, assault, battery, false imprisonment or seduction, two years; against officer or officer de facto to recover goods, wares or merchandise seized in his official capacity as tax collector, one year; on claims against county, which have been rejected by the board of county commissioners, within six months after the first rejection thereof; to recover stock sold for delinquent assessment, six months; for killing or injuring stock by railroad, six months; for lien not provided for, within five years. No limitation for the recovery of money deposited with a bank, trust company or savings society. Debt may be revived by promise in writing, or part payment of principal or interest. One year limitation for recovery of placer mining claims, repealed.

Married Women.—Wife's property acquired at any time, her separate estate provided it is specified in a list and recorded as such, is not liable for debts of husband. Married women have the same rights regarding property as they would if single.

Notes and Bills.—Foreign and inland bills of exchange and promissory notes are negotiable. Commercial paper is subject to the law merchant as to protest; no grace. A negotiable instrument may contain a pledge of collateral security.

Proof of Claims.—All that is necessary is to send the original instrument in case the demand is in writing, to the attorney; if an open or stated account, an itemized statement of the whole transaction. In all cases give name of firm, and full name of each member of firm. If claimant is a corporation, give style of corporation and the source of its existence, and, if possible, in case suit is desired, refer the attorney to two responsible parties within the state, who will become security on attachment bonds.

Redemption.—Lands sold under execution, one year.

Revivor.—Part payment, acknowledgment or promise in writing.

Stay of Execution.—Discretion of Court.

Witness.—Parties to a suit are fully competent to testify.

Married Women.—May acquire, hold and enjoy and convey property same as if she be sole. Cannot be examined for or against her husband without his consent and vice versa. May carry on mercantile business in her own name upon making application to district court.

ANACONDA. Pop, 12,000. Deer Lodge county. An important city at the terminus of a branch line of the N P Ry.
also the western terminus of the B A & P Ry, and reached by the G N Ry
from Butte. It is the county seat, 27 miles n w of Butte, and is noted as the location of the reduction works of the Amalgamated Copper Co, which are the largest of the kind in the world,
having a monthly payroll of $255,000.
Nearly all the ore reduced at these works comes from the company's mines at Butte. In these mines 6,000 men are employed. About 170 cars of ore, amounting to about 8,000 tons, are handled daily by the Anaconda works, producing more than $3,000,000 worth of copper, silver and gold a month.
The full capacity of the works is 8,500 tons of ore a day. One of the greatest gold belts in the west lies north and west of Anaconda, many mines are being opened up. Among these the Gold Coin, at Silver Lake, the Atlantic Cable, at Cable. Coal has been recently discovered in the vicinity of Anaconda. The sapphires that are found on Rock creek and other points near Anaconda, are equal to any of the oriental sapphires, and are of all colors. The Hearst Free Library, containing 7,000 volumes, was established in July, 1895, and was maintained by Mrs P A Hearst, widow of the late Senator Hearst of California until 1905, when it was turned over to the municipality. The B A & P Ry shops are located here, and employ about 75 men. The Masons, Odd Fellows, Catholic Order of Foresters, Ancient Order of Hibernians, Knights of Pythias, A O U W, G A R, P O S of A,

and various other secret organizations,
besides several K of L unions, are now strongly represented. The city is governed by a mayor and a board of aldermen. The town has a large number of thriving business houses, two banks, Catholic, Presbyterian, Lutheran, Baptist, Methodist, Swedish Mission and Episcopal churches, good schools and a daily morning paper, the Standard.
The city has a complete water works system, electric light plant, electric cars, 2 parks, and one of the finest equipped fire departments in the West,
an opera house, The Margaret, seating 1,300, splendidly equipped foundry and machine shops, and a large brick manufactory. Telephone service. Exp, G

BILLINGS. Pop. 7,500. Yellowstone county. The judicial seat of the county, is a prosperous incorporated city, advantageously located on the Yellowstone river and the N P and C B & Q Rys, 238 miles e of Helena and 82 from St Paul. The city has nearly doubled in population during the past two years, and by the opening of the Crow Indian Reservation, nearly 1,500,000 acres are open to settlers. This is one of the richest agricultural and live stock sections in this state, and Billings is the receiving and distributing point for the stock ranges of eastern Montana and northern Wyoming, and has in the vicinity also, immense deposits of coal, marble, limestone, etc. The city contains Methodist, Congregational, Episcopal, Baptist and Catholic churches, 2 hospitals, a fine public library, a court house and jail, an opera house, several hotels, a flour mill, 2 national, 1 state and 2 savings banks, a business college and brick yards. Two newspapers, the Gazette, daily and semi-weekly and the Times, semi-weekly, are published. It is lighted by electricity, has the Holly system of water works, a good fire department, and ship, cattle, sheep, horses and wool. It is one of the best wool markets in the Northwest. A best sugar factory and refining plant, costing $1,000,000, with a capacity of 1,200 tons of sugar beets daily, is being constructed, and contracts are being made with the farmers for all the beets they can raise, and it is estimated that beets will yield $100 per acre. Stages daily to Laramie and tri-weekly to Prior. Local and long distance telephone service. Exp. Adams and N P. Tel. W U. Mail, daily. O B Prickett, P M.

ty. The judicial seat of the county, on the N P Ry, and the East Gallatin river and Bozeman creek, which furnish excellent water power. It is 96 miles s e of Helena and 1,031 from St Paul, and is the metropolis of the fertile Gallatin valley, which produces two-thirds of the grain grown in the state. This prosperous, enterprising and important city, located as it is in the center of a fine agricultural district, for which it is the receiving and distributing point,
has in the vicinity valuable deposits
of gold, silver and asbestos, and inexhaustible beds of coal, which require only skill and enterprise to make them
the best paying industries in the country. It was first settled in 1864 and was incorporated as a city in 1882. It
is governed by a mayor and board of aldermen. The city supports 4 banks, 1 brewery, brick yards, stone quarries,
lime kilns, a wagon factory, 2 flour
mills, 5 grain elevators, a foundry, several hotels and saw and planing mills, 2 hospitals, a commodious court house,
city hall and fine opera house, owned by the city, good public schools and church buildings. The Montana State College of Agriculture & Mechanic Arts is situated here, and located in very spacious and beautiful new buildings, consisting of main building, chemical and physical laboratory, drill hall,
an experimental station, buildings erected at a cost of $100,000 and containing equipment costing $25,000; also the U S land office and U S fish hatchery. Four newspapers, the Republican-Courier, semi-weekly, and the Chronicle, weekly, and the Exponent and Rocky Mountain Presbyterian, monthly, are published. The city has 2 electric light companies, water works, electric street car service, a public library and a volunteer fire department. The shipments are extensive and comprise grain, coal,
brick, live stock and general produce.

THE International Mining Company was incorporated Oct. 14, 1902, under the laws of the state of Montana, for a period of twenty years, with its principal place of business at 114 East Main Street, Bozeman, Mont. The International Mining Company's Mines are located about 14 miles north of Bozeman and about 12 miles east of Belgrade, Mont., in the Spring Hill Mining District. This company has already expended $80,000.00 in the development of these mines. The company has run a main tunnel in these mines 1200 feet, cross-cutting various leads of ore of great value, and has cut through six hundred feet of valuable marble, a mountain of the best building material and 7 ft. ledge of ruby Granite, best abrasive material and polishing marble, and is now pushing the work on main tunnel to tap rich body of copper ore at a depth of about 700 feet, revealed by shaft.

BUTCHERTOWN. Silver Bow county. A settlement,  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile n of Walker-ville, the p. o., and 2 n of Butte, which see for names.

BUTLER. Lewis and Clarke county. Name changed to Austin, which see.

BUTTE. U S census 30,470. Est pop. 75,000. The judicial seat of Silver Bow county, takes its name from a cone-shaped mountain, called "Big Butte" or "butte," situated on western city limits. Butte is built upon a gently sloping arm or spur of the Rocky Mountains, the main divide of which is about 5 miles e. Its altitude is 5,809 feet above the sea level, and it overlooks the beautiful Summit valley, while Silver Bow creek flows at the foot of a hill a mile away. It has a southern exposure and natural drainage, and with its pure, bracing, invigorating atmosphere, it is one of the healthiest cities in the Union. The death rate is  $9\frac{1}{4}$  persons to the thousand, which is one of the smallest in America. Four railroads enter the city, viz, the Oregon Short Line, Montana Central (G N Ry), Butte, Anaconda & Pacific and Northern Pacific. It was first settled in 1864, by placer miners, and for a number of years was a steady producer of gold. It remained a gold mining camp, composed of a few straggling log houses, until 1875, when the building of the Centennial mill, followed by the building of the Dexter, the Old Lexington and other mills, all of which were completed early in 1876, turned the attention of silver miners and capitalists to the place. Prospecting for silver lodes and silver mining now commenced in earnest, and with the completion of the Alice mill, in October, 1877, Butte at once took a position as one of the prominent silver mining centers in the West. Since the latter date the growth of Butte has been simply phenomenal. For, in addition to the great silver mines, the discovery of an 80-foot copper vein, extending for a mile and a half from east to west, just north of the city limits, has greatly added to the mineral output of this vicinity. The depth of this vein can only be conjectured, since it shows better ore the deeper it is penetrated, and now it is worked at a depth of 2,600 feet. A conservative estimate of the annual copper output is 245,783 tons, worth about \$50,000,000; gold, \$1,127,692; silver, \$12,223,714. The copper output of Butte is 26.6 per cent of the total product of the world and 51 per cent of the product of the United States, making Butte the foremost mining camp on earth. By an act of the territorial legislative assembly, approved Feb 21, 1879, Butte was incorporated. In 1888 it was reincorporated. In 1893 the limits were extended so as to include South Butte, making an area of 2 square miles. Under the charter granted the city is governed by a mayor and city council, the former being elected every two years. By an act of the legislative assembly, approved Feb. 16, 1881, the county of Silver Bow was created out of the southern portion of Deer Lodge county, and Butte made the seat of justice. Butte is well supplied with churches, nearly all denominations being represented in the many substantial buildings. The educational facilities are of a superior order, the schools of Butte ranking second to none in the West, employing a large corps of well trained teachers, and having school property valued at \$900,000. The city has numerous handsome and substantial business blocks, elegant private residences, 7 banks, 3 first-class hotels and numerous others, both European and American, an electric railway system, local and long distance telephone service. The city is lighted by both gas and electricity; the gas plant includes seven miles of main and lateral pipes and the electric light system was constructed at a cost of \$950,000. The Madison River Power Co and Missouri River Power Co have electric power lines entering Butte, to furnish power to mines, smelters and manufacturing plants. The water works system has been extended by the Butte Water Company, which has recently expended over a million dollars in new construction, this supply is part by gravity and part by pumping. The old system is fed from an immense impounding reservoir formed by a masonry dam built on Basin creek, 88 feet high and is fed from mountain streams and supplies about one half of the city by gravity. The extension consists of a large pumping plant, on the Big Hole river, a distance of 35 miles from Butte, where the water is pumped to a distributing reservoir in the northwestern part of the city. An ample fire protection is maintained at all times. The newspapers comprise 3 able and spirited dailies, and semi-weeklies, the Inter-Mountain, Evening News and Miner, and a number of able weeklies and monthlies. The Masons, Knights of Pythias, Oddfellows, all the fraternal, social, beneficiary, and labor organizations are represented and have prosperous lodges in the city. The Miners' Union, composed of miners, has a membership of 10,000. The mineral belt is about 4x6 miles in extent, and the number of claims surveyed for patents in the vicinity of Butte is about 2,825, and the most productive and valuable of these which are being worked are within a radius of 3 miles from the center of the city. The flats to east of the city, at foot of main divide, are being exploited with gratifying success, proving that the Great Butte Copper Veins underlie the previous worthless ground, and giving the additional assurance of the continuance of Butte's supremacy and prosperity. Butte has 4 smelting works, and 10,000 miners, wood choppers and teamsters are kept employed and the pay rolls of the various mining companies aggregate over \$1,600,000 per month. Tel. ### Big Store in Butte

There's everything here that mortal man can desire for any and all occasions. The men's dep't contains dress suits and business suits, overcoats, fancy vests and extra trousers. The men's furnishing dep't—gloves, hosiery, underwear, neckwear and other wearables. The hat and shoe dep'ts—Knox and other fine hats, Banister's, Foster's and other fine shoes for men, women and children. The costume dep't on second floor—everything in suits, millinery, costumes and wraps. The choicest of provisions in the meat market. In the grocery, everything for the table including wines and whiskeys, ales and beer. Call and examine the finest stock of goods in the state of Montana. If you can't come write for what you want.

Has Catholic, Episcopal and Methodist churches, graded and high schools, a bank and 2 flourishing weekly newspapers, the Montanian and Acantha. It is situated in the center of the best stock growing section in the state and within a short drive of one of the best farming sections in Northern Montana, where irrigation has advanced beyond the experimental and is a marked success as a means of assuring fine crops of all the small grains and the different kinds of hay. The local markets have always been good for all kinds of farm produce, as the supply has seldom equalled local demands. Beef and mutton are shipped both east and west. Winters are generally mild. FLATHEAD LAKE. Flathead county. A beautiful sheet of water 12 miles s. of Kalispell.

FLATHEAD VALLEY. The region of country, of which Kalispell is the center, known as the Flathead Valley, forms the n. w. portion of Montana, and is the most productive section of the Northwest. The valley is a series of beautiful plateaux, parks and dense forests. It is well watered by rivers, lakes, creeks and springs; and so numerous are its lakes that it is called the "Lake country." In area it is about the size of the states of Delaware and Connecticut combined, and its elevation above the sea level will average about 2,900 feet. A soliders' home is located in the valley about 2 miles w. of Columbia Falls.

Agriculture.—The prairie land is a rich, deep, black loam. The timber lands are an exception to most lands of that class, as it is found that timber grows on some of the most fertile lands of the valley. Irrigation is unnecessary, and the rainfall is equal to that of the state of Iowa. Vegetables of all kinds are grown in abundance: wild apples, plums, peaches, cherries, and small fruits, such as strawberries, blackberries, gooseberries, etc., are being raised successfully. Over 125,000 fruit trees are set out in the valley, and this number is being increased twenty to thirty thousand each year now that the experimental stage in fruit raising has been passed.

Lumbering.—The Flathead river with its tributaries, the North, South and Middle Forks, the Stillwater and Whitefish rivers, with their numerous branches, making a little over 600 miles of logging streams, all of which converge at Kalispell, flow through vast forests of tamarack, fir, larch and cedar. There are now 20 saw mills operating in the valley, with a combined output of 125 million feet per annum. In the n. e. portion of the valley are vast measures of a superior quality of coal, and the development of this resource by the railroads will make this section the Pittsburg of the Northwest. The finest quality of fire clay is found, and common and pressed brick of superior quality are manufactured. Cattle raising is an important industry. As a dairy country this section is unsurpassed, with a happy combination, an abundance of purest water, succulent grasses and bracing yet temperate mountain air.

Rich veins of gold, silver, copper and lead have been found in the mountain ranges surrounding the Flathead Valley, and are attracting the attention of capitalists, who are developing these mining properties. Several mining companies are now in active operation and paying regular dividends.

The Sportsman's Paradise.—The Flathead valley is a veritable paradise for the sportsman. The woods are full of deer and pheasants, while the grain fields are the feeding grounds of grouse in countless numbers. The lakes and streams are alive with ducks, geese, brant and swans. In the mountains are elk, moose and bears. The streams are abundantly supplied with fine trout, salmon and whitefish. Twelve miles s. of Kalispell lies Flathead lake, one of the prettiest sheets of water in the world. It is 35 miles long and from 10 to 15 miles wide. Its greatest depth is unknown. A biological station was erected at the upper end of the lake in 1899 in connection with the state university. Other beautiful but smaller lakes are Swan, Ashley, Whitefish,

GRAYLING. Beaverhead county. A flag station on the O. S. Line, 17 miles s w of Dillon, the county seat and banking point, and 9 n of Red Rock, the p o. Exp. Pacific.

GREAT FALLS. Pop. 16,000, Cascade county. The judicial seat of the county. It is one of the youngest cities in Montana, and is beautifully located at the head of the Falls of the Missouri. It has all the modern municipal improvements, including a water system, unsurpassed in the West, and the finest system of streets and avenues in the state. Here the electric street railway system and the arc and incandescent lighting plants are operated by the water power of the upper falls. It has long distance telephone connection with all the principal towns of the state, and contains 14 church organizations, 4 banks, several good hotels, 2 flour mills, foundry and machine shops, a public library, 2 daily and 2 weekly newspapers, and the social and fraternal societies usually found in Eastern cities. It has 7 public parks, covering an area of 500 acres; also hospital advantages unsurpassed in any other town. The opera house and school buildings in this city are large and modern in construction. The Boston & Montana Copper Smelting & Refining plant is located here, giving steady employment to about 2,000 men. The total monthly pay roll of this company, together with the railroad shops, iron foundry and the coal mines of Belt and Sand Coulee, located in the immediate vicinity, amount to over $250,000 a month, or $3,000,000 per annum. Great Falls is the largest primary wool market in the United States. From this point, also, large shipments of cattle and sheep are made annually.

The most important factor in the future growth of this city is its great water power. A dam built at the upper falls has already developed 25,000 horse power. The entire power of the Missouri falls is not less than 350,000 horse power, in low water. The total height of these falls and rapids is 512 feet.

Coal fields adjacent to Great Falls, and directly tributary, have an average thickness of 10 feet and cover an area of not less than 400 square miles. They are very accessible for transportation, and easily mined. It is pure bituminous coal, solid and clean, and in this respect resembles anthracite coal. The daily output of the mines is about 3,000 tons.

At Belt, 26 miles distant from Great Falls, a large plant for the manufacture of coke has been established, which supplies the works of the Anaconda company.

The combination of resources of Great Falls and the country tributary thereto has already made this city a prominent railway center. It is connected with the East by the G. N. Ry (distance to St. Paul, 1,074 miles) and with the West by the Montana Central (Helena, 97, Butte, 171 miles distant). Running at right angles to these lines in the south is the Neihart br of the Montana Central to the Belt, Sand Coulee and Stockett coal fields and to the rich mines of Neihart and Barker in the Belt mountains. HEDSTROM OLE, Sheep Breeder.

HELENA. Pop, 21,000. Lewis and Clark county. The commercial metropolis and the capital of Montana and the judicial seat of the county, is located near the eastern base of the main range of the Rocky Mountains, overlooking the rich valley of the Prickly Pear, which is 15 miles wide and famous for its fine farms of wheat, rye, oats, barley and vegetables. It is 14 miles e of the Mullen tunnel, where the N P Ry goes through the main divide and enters the valley of the Little Blackfoot, which is the headwaters of the Columbia. In all the facilities for the maintenance, and extension of trade and commerce, Helena has no superior in the Northwest. Helena owes its location on the mountain side and foothills, spreading thence into the valley, to the fact that it was on Last Chance Gulch that the gold placers were discovered in 1864, which yielded between thirty and forty millions of dollars, and it was on either side of the paystreak that the miners built their cabins. It was chartered as a city in 1881. The city has been twice destroyed by fire, 1869 and 1874, and as often rebuilt in a more substantial manner than before, and it now boasts of magnificent and commodious brick and stone stores, warehouses and residences. The public buildings are the United States assay office, which handles more silver and gold than any other in the Union with a single exception; the court house of Lewis and Clarke county, erected at a cost of $150,000; Catholic, Episcopal, Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist, Methodist South, Christian, Congregational, Hebrew, German Methodist, Norwegian and Swedish Lutheran churches, Helena Theatre, The Helena, The Grandon, The Warren, Grand Central, Cosmopolitan and the International Hotels, The Broadwater, Natatorium with a plunge and swimming bath 200x100 feet in dimensions (the waters the sulphurous and hot, similar to those of Arkansas), county jail; erected in 1890, at a cost of about $70,000; St John's and St Peter's hospitals and the City Hall. In addition to all these splendid structures the city has a state capitol built of granite and native sandstone, which was erected at a cost of about $500,000, and a $300,000 federal building, for which the government purchased an entire block of ground. Fort Harrison, a U S military post, about 4 miles e, cost

$1,000,000. The Montana club building, erected at a cost of $100,000. The city is amply supplied with lighting facilities, there being both gas works and electricity. An excellent quality of coal, which is mined extensively in the state, is obtainable at low figures. There are over 25 miles of electric street railway, reaching every section of the city and its suburbs. Helena is a city of homes whose architectural beauty and construction compare favorably with any city in America. An altitude of 4,200 feet induces a most propitious climate; extremes of heat and cold, pulmonary and miasmatic influences being unknown. The Missouri river dam, located opposite Helena, at a distance of about 15 miles, furnishes electric power to the extent of 25,000 horse power, with which the city is furnished light and power for the street railways and everything to which electric power can be applied. This power is also transmitted to Butte, where it is used in the mines and smelters. Helena is on the main lines of those two great transcontinental railways, the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern. These roads, with their numerous branches, afford the city ready communication with nearly all the other settled localities in Montana. Distance to Portland, Ore, 782 miles; Twin Cities, 1,150; Butte, 73; Fort Benton, 144; Garrison, 52; Missoula, 125. About 5 miles from Helena are the vast works of the United Smelting & Reduction Co, erected at a cost of $500,000, and which give employment to 400 men. Helena is located within 12 miles of the Missouri river. The great valleys of the Missouri, Jefferson, Gallatin, Madison and Prickly Pear are tributary with their immense agricultural products, which come for 100 miles to find a market at the metropolis of the state. The jobbing trade of Helena is constantly increasing with the rapid development of the surrounding country. There are a large number of wholesale houses, many of which do an annual business of more than a million dollars. The manufacturing industries are also extending and there is a wide diversity of products. The city lies in the center of one of the richest gold districts, and Helena people have large interests in the surrounding mining camps. The city is governed by a mayor and council of 14 members, who represent the seven wards into which the city is divided. There is an ample gravity supply of excellent water, with pressure and main capacity sufficient to throw twenty direct firm streams. The public school system consists of 8 graded and 1 high school, employing about 45 teachers, and with a total enrollment of about 2,500 pupils. The Episcopal and Catholic denominations have schools, of their own, and there are also two good business colleges. The Montana University with a large corps of teachers in the higher branches, is also located in Helena. There is a well equipped public library, with elegant quarters in the Auditorium building.

Skill, Originality and Superiority in Workmanship are displayed in Our Works. An individuality distinguishes our monuments from all others, while prices are reasonable. Why, then, consider commonplace designs or out-of-date productions? Our stock of new and attractive Monuments, Markers, etc., NONE BETTER, NONE CHEAPER.

KALISPELL. Pop. 5,000. Flathead county. In which the first building was erected in May, 1891, is now a thriving city, in the center of the famous Flathead Valley, and is the county seat of the county. Kalispell is a modern city in every particular. It is supplied with a sewer system, and has macadamized business streets and several of the residence streets have been paved and macadamized. The streets, business houses and homes are lighted by electricity, and the water supply comes from one of the best systems of water works in Montana, costing $150,000. The Big Fork Electric Power & Light Co has recently developed an extensive water power some twenty miles from Kalispell, which furnishes all power for lighting and manufacturing purposes in Kalispell and throughout the valley. The city is supplied with the latest improved fire apparatus. All classes of business are represented. There are 2 national banks, the Conrad and the First, lumber and planing mills, malt-ing house and brick brewery, 2 flour mills with a combined capacity of 250 barrels per day, 4 grain elevators, a creamery, a large cold storage plant, an opera house with a seating capacity of 800, U S land office and weather bureau, and numerous substantial brick and stone business blocks and many fine residences. There are several hotels here. The city is incorporated and has a full complement of officials taken from the ranks of the business men. The Great Northern Ry has large yards filled with tracks, round house, coal bunkers, large freight depot and other buildings, including stock yards. The company has also erected a two-story brick passenger depot, which is one of the finest buildings on their line between St Paul and the Coast. Kalispell is the radiating point for all roads, and trails leading throughout the county, and is the jobbing center for all small towns throughout this portion of the state. North of Kalispell a few miles, are the well known Crow's Nest coal fields, controlled by Mr J J Hill, president of G N Ry Co. A branch line from Jennings north, to said coal fields has been completed. This coal is like the Japanese hard coal, not quite equal to anthracite. It is estimated that there is more coal in sight in these measures than in the combined fields of the British Isles. Twelve miles south of Kalispell the John O'Brien Lumber Co has completed the largest saw mill plant in the state, with a capacity of 75,000,000 feet per annum, and adjoining same the Great Northern Ry Co has erected a mammoth tie preserving plant, with capacity of 4,000 ties per day. A branch road has been built from Kalispell to these plants. Over $20,000 have been expended in church edifices. Eight denominations are represented here. The city has two large brick and one frame school building and a free county high school which has a handsome brick $20,000 building. The county has constructed a $70,000 court house and jail which is situated at Kalispell and both are handsome buildings. Two weekly newspapers, the Herald-Journal and the Inter Lake, and the Bee, a Semi-weekly, are published. Free mail de-

MISSOULA. Pop. 10,769. Missoula county. The Garden City of Montana, and the judicial seat of the county, is on the N P Ry, 125 miles west of Helena, and on the Missoula river, at the point where the stream breaks through the Missoula or Hell Gate Canyon and flows on through a wide and fertile valley, backed by high and rolling hills. The effect is picturesque and magnificent in the extreme. The altitude is 3,318 feet and the climate is much milder than on the eastern slope. The celebrated valley of the Bitter Root river lies directly s, extending a distance of 90 miles. It is well watered and thickly settled. Another rich but smaller valley is located to the w of Missoula, both valleys producing wheat, oats, small vegetables and all kinds of berries and fruit peculiar to the climate. The city is governed by a mayor and board of aldermen. It is the receiving and distributing point for a large section of surrounding country, and contains 11 church organizations, the University of Montana, one of the largest and best colleges in the state, a business college (The Garden City), a system of graded public schools, an academy of the Sacred Heart conducted by the Sisters of Charity, 7 good hotels, 3 banks, a new public library costing $12,500, brick and tile works, a brewery and bottling works, 4 opera houses and 3 hospitals. The roundhouse, machine shops and the division headquarters of the Rocky Mountain div of the N P Ry, an iron and brass foundry and machine shops are located here. Four newspapers, the Missoulian (daily and weekly), the Journal (semi-weekly), and two monthly magazines, the Western Home-seeker and the Montanian, are published. The city has a well equipped fire department, a uniformed police force and a system of water works second to none in the West. The city is lighted by electricity, has numerous well-stocked special and general stores, and is adorned with many pretentious buildings of pressed brick and granite, and many private dwellings of unique and costly designs. Port Missoula is situated 4 miles s w and is reached by wagon road. The Missoula & Bitter Root Valley R R connects with the main line at this point. A dam is now being built at Banner, Mont, where electric power will be generated to furnish power for an electric car service for Missoula, and the surrounding country. Grain, produce and lumber are the principal shipments. Telephone service with all the surrounding towns. Stages, tri-weekly to Clearwater, fare $2.50, and daily to Bonner, fare 50c. Exp. N P. Tel. ## WESTERN COLLEGE OF CHIROPRACTIC

THOMAS J. JAMES, D. E. T., D. V. T., D. M. T. D. C.

President and Founder of the College, Dean of the Faculty, Professor of Principles of Chiropractic Diagnosis, and Director of Clinics.

ANNA L. JAMES, D. O. D. C.

Professor of Gynecology, Obstetrics and Neurography. And a Faculty of Competent Professors.

How to Learn a Profitable Profession and Better Your Condition:

CHIROPRACTIC is far ahead of Osteopathy and is fast becoming recognized as the only Scientific Method of Successfully treating disease without the use of harmful drugs.

Reasonably bright men and women can graduate in six months and engage in a lucrative practice in this neighborhood. Why grope in the dark endeavoring to better your circumstances when relief is offered. Here is what a graduate writes: "My success has exceeded my most sanguine expectations. I have been located here only two months and treat 8 to 11 patients a day, making from $200 to $800 per month."

Among 70,000,000 people there are less than 500 Chiropractors

The course of studies embraces Anatomy, Physiology, Chemistry, Histology, Symptomatology, Physical Diagnosis, Pathology, Gynecology, Obstetrics, Neurography, Hygiene and Dietetics. For Literature and Terms address

NIHILL & MALCOLM

We Handle Farming Lands, Stock Ranches, Town Lots, and Live Stock
of all kinds. LIFE, FIRE AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE.

MOORE is a young town two years old, railroad communications, two telephone systems, two banks, twenty-two business houses, including weekly newspaper, large elevator--75,000 bushels capacity, in operation; another large one to be built this season.

Farmers in this vicinity raised last season over 250,000 bushels of wheat. Moore is the coming town of the Judith Basin. Creamery in course of construction; capacity 1200 lbs. of butter per day.

We have farms listed with us that will grow 50 bushels fall wheat to the acre or 75 to 80 bushels of oats to the acre. The prices are right, from $15.00 to $30.00 per acre, according to improvements. Terms to suit purchaser.

Write us for full information; we will gladly send it to you.
